

Participant's Etiquette

Parties participating in forums or consultation must observe certain conditions to ensure fruitful discussions or feedbacks to regulators. As such:

- Statements which offend racial, religious or cultural sensitivities should be avoided;
- Statement attacking or insulting person(s) or organisation(s) is not allowed
- Comments/feedback must be related and relevant to the issue(s) under consideration
- Not to attach any link to offensive websites
- Ensure compliance with copyright, trademark and patent requirements, if relevant
- Not to use UPC for the purpose of running competition or commercial activities
- Not to upload file that contains virus

The moderator reserves the right to remove any comment/feedback and is not responsible for comments posted on UPC.
